This newly updated file consists of Patent Attorneys and Agents. A patent attorney is an individual who is a lawyer, holds a university degree in an approved technical field and has passed the Patent Bar Examination. A patent agent holds a university degree and has passed the Patent Bar Examination but is not a lawyer. Both patent attorneys and agents are registered with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (PTO) and are fully authorized to prepare patent applications and obtain patents for their clients. Patent agents usually charge much less for their services. Patent attorneys and agents are treated with equal status by the PTO.
