This newly updated file features Physical Therapists. These professionals foster the development and improvement of physical therapy service, education, and research. They work with physically challenged individuals in hospitals, nursing homes, mental health facilities, and rehabilitation centers. They are licensed by the state and are implementing leaders in providing physical therapy services, educational programs, sponsoring conventions, writing for professional journals, and conducting scientific research. Physical Therapists are ideal prospects for seminars, continuing education programs, and professional workshops. They subscribe to work-related magazines, and purchase physical therapy supplies.

There are 234, 525 records available with License Number!
